

VGN sponsors two-day Chennai-Puducherry heritage car rally

Known for world-class homes, quality projects

The Madras Heritage Motoring Club Chennai-Puducherry two day car rally. Large number of public a chance to glimpse the beauties on wheels.

V.N. Devadas Chairman and Pratish, Managing Director, VGN Developers flagged off the annual heritage car rally at Prarthana drive-in theatre.

Totally, 55 vintage cars cruised from Chennai to Puducherry as part of the Madras Heritage Motoring Club's annual drive. These cars gave a glimpse of a bygone era in personal transportation.

What was striking about these cars was the immaculate condition of these vehicles and it was clear that each owner has put in a great deal of money in maintaining these cars at their pristine best.

The vintage car rally is an effort aimed at showcasing vintage cars that have been maintained in excellent condition due to the efforts of motorcar enthusiasts who preserve, maintain and show off their road-worthiness during the rally.

On reaching Pondy, the cars were on display for four hours on the Beach Road, for public viewing. The return leg of the rally started from Puducherry on January 29.

Car enthusiasts had a good look at the vintage vehicles at the WelcomHotel Kences Palm Beach, Mamallapuram, from noon to 2 pm. Puducherry Tourism and CavinKare are the other sponsors of the rally organised by Madras Heritage Motoring Club, a non-profit organisation.
